

hospitalitydesign

the products
issue

By Jana Schiowitz

soak in style

There are two sides to the new dual-toned towel line, Yin Yang: one soft and gentle and one firmer. New from Standard Textile, the towel allows hotel users to choose their own drying experience, and arrives Room Ready for You Laundered with Tide so hotels can take them directly from the box to the bathroom.
www.yinyang-collection.com; www.standardtextile.com

Shower alongside your favorite television program with Séura's waterproof television, Hydra. Customizable glass face colors, a flush solution with a sleek body, and an IP65 rating indicating that the television can withstand any water that hits its surface, are just some of the product's highlights.
www.seura.com

Woods mingle with finishes and decorative front panels in MTI Whirlpools' line of transitional furniture. The newest addition to the mix: Maya Romanoff's Aphrodite design with hand-inlaid shells fit for console panels.
www.mtiwhirlpools.com

Victoria & Albert shows that glamour can be found in a tub. The sleek Deauville is a modern interpretation of the classic clawfoot tub with wooden feet, which are available in either mahogany or oak.
www.vandabaths.com

